

MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1835.

Later from England.—By the ship Trenton, Capt. Davis, which arrived here yesterday, the Messrs. Top-liff received files of London and Liverpool papers to the 25th ult. inclusive. The Trenton sailed from Liverpool on Sunday the 26th. The contents of the papers are of very little interest.

London, July 25. The French ministerial papers of Wednesday night contain a telegraphic despatch from Bayonne 21st inst., which states that Don Carlos retired on the 17th to Aranza, where he was joined by the rest of the Carlist army; and that in the action of the 16th the Carlists had a great number of officers killed and wounded. The principal part of the Christiano troops arrived at Pampeluna on the 19th, with the prisoners made on the 16th.

The illness of the President of the Chamber of Peers had prevented the conclusion of the trial of the Lyons prisoners, on Saturday.

The cholera has commenced its diminishing stage at Toulon.

By an extract from the Gazette de Zara of the 2nd inst. it appears that the insurrection at Scutari had derived new strength from the defeat of the Pacha's troops in a sortie made on the 15th ult.

Brussels, July 21.—The escape of the St Pelagie prisoners was made known by telegraph several hours before the fact was notified to the public. The Belgian police had received orders to lay hands upon these persons, and to deliver them over to the French authorities. No such orders have been issued to the police here, and the government is resolved that Belgium shall not be converted into a harbor where those accused of State crimes in France, or any other country, may find refuge.

The report of an attempt on the life of the Duke of Saxe Weimar, is very much exaggerated. It seems that a Dutch officer in a state of hallucination, being refused an audience of his Serene Highness, broke out into violent language, and put his hand to his sword; he was instantly seized by the Duke and his Aid de Camp, and delivered to the guard, and thence conveyed to a mad-house. The Duke is extremely unpopular in Belgium.

London, July 25.—Money Market.—There has been very little alteration to remark during the day, and although money may be generally termed plentiful, the continued uncertainty which prevails as to the official announcement of the new West India loan, has prevented any degree of speculation in the British funds, which have, however, closed steadily.

Liverpool Cotton Market, Friday, July 24.—We still continue to have a very limited demand, and a dull market, with less firmness in prices, particularly for Brazil which are 14 lower; common Americans are also rather easier to day—1000 Sultans and 1000 American taken on speculation, and 200 American for export. The sales are 180 sea island 24d to 25 100—20 stoutest do 17d to 21d—300d do 14d to 17d—1000 New Orleans 9d to 14d—1200 Alabama, &c. 9d to 13d. The Egyptian cotton declared for auction was bought in—but the parties are getting an advance of 1d to 2 upon the prices offered.

Later from France.—By the arrival at New York, of the ship Natchez, from Havre, dates have been received to the 24th of July.

The cholera is diminishing at Toulon. It has reached Marseilles, where its appearance had caused the greatest terror. The roads adjacent were filled with persons fleeing from the city. The cholera has also appeared at Genoa. M. Thiers, the Minister of the Interior, is very ill.

The accounts from the north of Spain are decidedly favorable to the cause of the Queen. The Paris correspondent of the Journal du Havre says, "The result of all the news received from Spain is, that the Carlists continue unfortunate in all their sieges, and that they were pursued in three directions on the 17th of July."

General Mina arrived at Toulon from Montpellier on the 17th ult., his wound being completely healed.

Letters from Vienna and Berlin announce in positive terms, the approaching acknowledgement of Don Carlos by the Northern Powers. This acknowledgement will, it is said, counterbalance the quasi-intervention of France and England.

Letters from Algiers to the 12th ult. confirm the intelligence from that place and Oran, respecting the serious check experienced by the French. A more detailed account is given of the encounter, but presents nothing further of consequence.

The New York papers of Friday morning contain the proceedings of the great meeting held in that city on Thursday, and composed of persons opposed to the measures and principles of the abolitionists. Cornelius W. Lawrence, the Mayor, presided, assisted by twenty eight Vice Presidents and twelve Secretaries. About ten thousand persons were present, and the vast concourse was ably addressed by Messrs Samuel L. Gouverneur, Charles O'Connor and Willis Hall, Esqrs. The resolutions adopted are of a dignified tenor, evincing, says the N. Y. Gazette, "a most friendly feeling towards the South, and a determination not to infringe in any way its rights, at the same time they assert the rights of the North in a kind but positive manner." The resolutions hold that the citizens of the North have no political right to interfere with the slavery of the Southern States, in no moral right, under any circumstances, to adopt violent or aggressive measures for the purpose of abolishing it—and assert, that the meeting "view with deep indignation the interference of foreign emissaries in a matter so intimately connected with our social and civil relations, and that if in spite of argument and entreaty, they shall persist in such interference, we [the meeting] recommend a resort to such constitutional legislation as may meet the exigency of the case, and remove the evil." The entire proceedings are creditable to the city, and are well calculated to give, at the South, a correct view of the feelings of the Northern people on the subject of slavery.

Silent Legislators.—As every speaker is not a statesman, and as speech does not necessarily imply thought or wisdom in the speaker, neither does it follow that every man who is dumb in the halls of legislation is necessarily a man of solid sense. Every wise man is capable of speaking, conversing or writing. He that can do neither of these is most probably incapable of thinking also—and can do nothing as a legislator, except to hold up his hand when he sees the idol of his party do the same. Of what service is one's wisdom who cannot impart it by speaking, conversing or writing? He cannot be useful either as a legislator or as a member of society. He is a stupid blockhead—fit only to be admired by still greater fools than himself, who may be wonder-struck by the gravity and silence of his deportment. He that has most real eloquence—that is, he who can by his speech or by his pen, influence the minds of others, affords the strongest evidence of a Spirit.—An immense Anti-Abolitionist held in Bath, Me., and another one if these movements do not satisfy the minds of the North upon the subject of slavery, we don't know what can.

The Right.—The Right to the South of the diocese of slavery, we don't know what can.

The Right.—The Right to the South of the diocese of slavery, we don't know what can.

Disturbances on the Wash and Erie Canal, near Wash, Indiana.—Bad feelings have existed for some time between the Corkonians and Fardowns, employed on this canal, and after several minor skirmishes, the 12th inst., the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, was fixed upon for a general battle, the parties having previously supplied themselves with arms and ammunition. The two parties, numbering from 250 to 300 each, advancing to the affray, the (Corkonians having assembled on the 10th, at Lago, and the Fardowns having advanced to within seven miles of that place,) were met by one of the commissioners and several citizens, who succeeded in persuading them to suspend the fight for a few days. In the meantime expresses were sent to Fort Wayne and Logansport, requesting assistance to suppress the disturbances, and protect the citizens from the dangers to which they would be exposed, if the parties should come in contact. In a very few days, 250 volunteers were under arms, and upon the spot. This display of force awed the rioters into submission—their shanties were searched for arms—and about 100 prisoners were taken; of these several were discharged for want of evidence; 14 of the ringleaders, including a man by the name of Sullivan, who took a prominent part in the disturbances in Maryland last year, and who during this disturbance attempted to take the life of one of the overseers, were taken to Indianapolis for safe custody; some were admitted to bail, and the remainder were still kept under guard at the date of the latest accounts.

Stephen Payson, a porter in Holt's Hotel, New York, was brought before the Recorder on Wednesday last, on a writ of habeas corpus, charged with abducting, or secreting with intent so to do, Miss Catherine Reton, a respectable young female residing in Elizabeth street, who has been missing from her home since the 22d instant, since which time she has not been heard of, except by three or four persons acquainted with Payson, who had heard him boast of knowing where she was, and of having her under his control and care. On the trial before the Recorder, Payson denied having any knowledge of her situation, and declared himself unable to give any information that would lead to her discovery; in the course of the examination, however, it turned out that he had received some letters from her from Philadelphia, and one of them was obtained from him, and produced by Mr Wilson, for the prosecution. Payson's counsel contended that the proceedings were both illegal and unnecessary, and that if his client knew where Miss Reton was, he was not bound to communicate the information to others. The Recorder gave an opinion that he had no jurisdiction in the case, inasmuch as there was no proof against the accused that he had exercised such an undue influence over the female, as would warrant the interference of the law, and it was mutually agreed upon by the counsel, that the matter should be adjourned to the following Monday for argument, when the Recorder would give his final opinion.

The Steamboat Citizens. The proprietors of this boat have been sued by the owners of the Gen. Lincoln, for trespass, in landing passengers on the wharf belonging to the latter. It appears that the Gen. Lincoln is owned by an incorporated company—that this company (one of whose bye-laws forbids the Gen. L. to run on Sunday) leased a strip of land for a term of thirteen years, for the purpose of erecting two piers on which the boat could land her passengers, and it was expressly stipulated in that lease that this land should be appropriated solely to the use of that company, for the purpose aforesaid. Under these circumstances, the Citizen has landed her passengers every Sunday, on the wharf, and it is for this trespass that the suit in question has been instituted—the proprietors of the Gen. L. being determined to assert their own rights, without showing any disposition to encroach upon the legal privileges of the owners of the Citizen.

A gang of men undertook to disturb a Camp meeting held at Northbridge, Worcester Co. during the past week, but after a short struggle were dispersed. Four of the rioters have been arrested and put under bonds of $300 each, to take their trial at the next County Court.

We join the gun-powderites, for we know that simple saltpetre never could have frightened us so much as to make us insensible to the sudden addition of 180, or 200 pounds weight upon our back. Will our passenger please to call and settle his fare?

The Wings may as well give up Rhode Island.—The Providence Herald of Saturday states that it is now ascertained that Messrs PEARCE and SPRAGUE, are elected over Burgess and Cranston—the majority over Burgess is about fifty—over Cranston about two hundred and fifty.

Joice Heth, the nurse of Washington, and the greatest curiosity ever exhibited, will be here in a day or two.

Sam Coon might have asked us over to his next chum bake, instead of turning up his nose because we called the first one "dog cheap."

A new College is soon to be erected at Midway, near Milledgeville, Georgia.

From Mexico.—By the Montezuma we have Vera Cruz papers to Aug. 5th inclusive. A conducta, with $1,000,000 in specie, left Mexico on the 1st for Vera Cruz. The country was tolerably quiet. From the 1st of Jan. to the 31st July, the number of vessels arrived at Vera Cruz was 151, of which 27 were American. The Mexican Congress commenced its session on the 19th of July. Gen. Barragan, Minister of the Interior, in his address to Congress, speaks of the revolution in favor of government as having been opposed by the Executive, Gen. Santa Anna, who found himself unable to resist the overwhelming torrent of public opinion.—Jour. Com.

North Carolina Elections.—We learn from a correspondent, who may be implicitly relied on, that there is a decided majority of Republicans returned to the General Assembly of North Carolina; a majority of twenty, at least, in favor of the present Administration; a majority of fifteen friendly to Mr Van Buren's nomination; and a majority of at least thirty opposed to the repeal of the instructions to Mangum, from respect to the well known will of the people. The North Carolina delegation will stand as it did last Congress—Barringer being beaten on the side of the opposition—Hall on that of the democracy.—Globe.

The Fourth of July was celebrated at the house of the United States Charge d'Affaires in Bogota, by the Americans then in the city, together with a few Gracians, among whom was Dr Lopez, Counselor of State.

Counterfeit Money.—The well-known Mark Winslow underwent a private examination, on Saturday, upon a charge of having in his possession a large quantity of counterfeit bills, upon a great number of banks. A legal gentleman, attorney for certain banks, received some intimation that Winslow had the spurious paper, and, upon searching his shop, in Cambridge street, Constables Cooledge and Reed found bills to the amount of about $700. Winslow was ordered to recognize for his appearance at the Municipal Court, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, and committed for want of bail. Winslow has been indicted and convicted three times for having and passing counterfeit money, and, besides one term in the common jail, has served six years in the State Prison. About 9 months ago, when Howe, now in the State Prison, was indicted, Winslow was also bound over, but the Grand Jury threw out the Bill, because there was good reason to believe, that some one had placed the bills in his shop for the purpose of getting him into difficulty.

Forgery.—Moses B. Foster, charged with a number of forgeries, was brought to this city from Hopkinton, New Hampshire, by Constable Clapp, on Friday evening, on an executive warrant, at the suit of the Atlas Bank. Both the Atlas Bank and the Tremont Bank have lost about $1000 each, by paying him forged checks. He admits the truth of the charges preferred against him. At the time the forgeries in question were committed, (before April,) Foster was in company, at Haverhill, Mass., with his brother, G. W. Foster, who has, as yet, eluded the vigilance of the officers.—In April Moses Foster, absconded from this State, but was arrested at Hopkinton, on a civil suit, just half an hour before Mr Clapp arrived with an executive warrant. The warrant was transferred to the jailer, and the moment Foster was liberated from duress on the civil process, he was retaken on the criminal.

Erratum.—In Police Report of Saturday, third case, for "Barnard," read Nelson, and for "Whitaker," read Kneeland.

Penmanship. There can be no excuse for the negligence or idleness which prevents the acquisition of an art so useful and so easily attained; but what can be said in extenuation of those "who can write and won't"—who compound absurdity with rudeness, in perpetrating an illegible scrawl; folding, and sealing it, and sending it to a distance, to puzzle and perplex a correspondent? This latter class of offenders richly merit a castigation which we are not, at this moment, in the humor to inflict. We shall therefore address ourselves to those who are desirous either of learning a good business hand, or of correcting or improving a bad one, by directing their attention to the advertisement of MR FOSTER. A good hand-writing and a knowledge of accounts are valuable accomplishments to all, and are indispensable to the merchant and the man of business. Young persons who are preparing for mercantile pursuits, should spare neither pains nor expense in order to obtain a full and competent knowledge of these useful branches of a commercial education. MR FOSTER is a practical Accountant, and is well known as an accomplished penman and a skilful teacher. His terms, for qualifying a young man for the counting-house—without regard to the number of lessons—are less than those of "Royal Anti-angular" quacks, (whose zig zag scrawls are a disgrace to the profession) charge for "twelve lessons of one hour each."

We extract the following from Dr Alcott's periodical, the "Moral Reformer," which is high authority in such matters:—

"Mr Foster is unquestionably the first writing-master in the city, if not in this country, and so far as much observation, and an acquaintance with him and his system authorize us to speak, utterly free from that humbug and quackery which disgrace not merely the profession, but, in some of its results, the whole Christian community. Writing is an art valuable in itself, beyond what most persons are ready to admit. And it is not only valuable in itself, but the easy, elegant and neat penman will extend his order and neatness into the whole circle of his habits, intellectual, social and moral;—at least such is the tendency. He who effects a reform in this department, will, in our view be a great public benefactor."—Ecc. Gazette.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Kentucky to his friend in this city.—N. Y. Post.

"I should have apprised you of my arrival some days sooner, but waited for the returns of the elections to give you the news. We have, in effect, gained a decided victory over our opponents. The House of Representatives stood last year (thanks to the panic) 76 opposition and 24 administration—now it stands 52 opposition and 48 administration, making a difference of 45! The Congressmen are about divided, though the opposition claim 9 to 4.

"Political prospects never were brighter in the west. We calculate on the whole west for our ticket with the exception of Tennessee; that state I fear we shall lose. The returns from Indiana are just coming in. All the Congressmen are for Van Buren and Johnson.

"The name of Johnson on the Republican ticket you may be sure will be of vast service to the party. No one doubts his election, or that of Mr. Van Buren.—They will have more than 100 electoral majority."

Serve Him Up.—We find in the New York Courier and Enquirer of yesterday the following notice:

"The public will recollect that about a week since a certain marriage was announced in several of the morning papers, and as it was wholly without foundation, a reward of One Hundred Dollars was offered at the time for the detection of the scoundrel who caused it to be inserted. The contemptible puppy is now well known, his name is Smyth Clarke, boards at No. 78, Greenwich street, is in the employ of the very respectable house of Smith & Town, in South street, is about 21 years of age, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches in height, and has red hair.

Negro picked up at Sea.—An extract of a letter received in this city, from Portland, states that a Guinea negro was picked up at sea, in the Gulf Stream, by schooner Emeline, at the distance of six hundred and forty miles from Cuba, and brought to that port. He was in a small canoe, and had left Cuba to escape from slavery under a hard master. He had been from Congo, in Africa, only five or six months, and was almost exhausted when fallen in with by the schooner. General Fessenden has taken him into his family.—Merc.

Suicide.—About 9 o'clock on Wednesday evening, as the night boat George Washington was crossing to Jersey City, one of the passengers jumped overboard and was drowned. A rope was thrown to him which he took hold of and might have been saved, but he let go of it again immediately, and sunk. He left his hat on board the boat, containing a letter and his pocket book, from which it was ascertained that his name was Samuel Sloan, and that he had kept a school in Paterson.—N. Y. Star.

New Orleans, August 13.—The rain fell again yesterday, and seems to have no intention of quitting its latitude for some time. The thermometer still continues at between 80 and 86 degrees; but the city enjoys a continuation of health, altogether unexampled at this season of the year. We trust we shall have no occasion through the remainder of it to alter our very favorable report.

FOSTER'S WRITING ESTABLISHMENT.
AND PRIVATE COMMERCIAL SCHOOL,
116 WASHINGTON STREET.
YOUNG GENTLEMEN are qualified, at this institution, for Commercial situations in a superior and expeditious manner. Penmanship and Double Entry Book Keeping are taught on an improved plan, by which a competent knowledge may be acquired in one third of the time usually devoted to these branches. The terms are for qualifying the learner for the business of the Counting-house, and no regard is paid to the number of lessons. Pupils may attend till their improvement is such, without extra charge. This is, therefore, the cheapest school in the city.
YOUNG MEN, whose avocations do not permit them to attend regularly, can receive lessons at such hours as will suit their convenience.
Foster's System of Penmanship, is simple and effective, easily acquired and easily applied to practice. Its distinguishing features are—
1. The learner attains a mastery of the mechanical movements of the fingers, hand and arm, and this muscular facility enables him to write with ease and expedition.
2. The letters are executed by the simultaneous movement of the fingers and hand, in conjunction with that of the hand and the arm, the arm resting lightly near the elbow, while the third and fourth fingers are used as a movable support.
3. All slow and formal practice is abandoned, and a series of exercises substituted, which impart a free, flowing command of the pen, and a uniform slope and regularity to the letters.
4. The exercises are performed rapidly, from the first, and in addition to great freedom, the habit of writing straight without lines, is acquired.
5. The style of writing is bold, graceful, and business like; combining the essential qualities of perspicuity, freedom, uniformity and elegance.
This system is practical, and undoubted in its efficacy. It greatly abridges the period of study; reduces the amount of labor; and leads with certainty to a rapid, elegant, and superior business hand.
Gentlemen, who object to their present hand-writing, and who experience any difficulty in the free use and command of the pen, may have these obstacles removed in a few lessons. au25

DR. PHELPS'S CURATIVE.—This Syrup is celebrated for the Cure of Croup, Whooping Cough, or Discharges of the Skin, Syphilis, or Venereal Complaints, Rheumatism, Ulcers in the Throat and other parts of the Body, Mercurial Affections, Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Blood, Deep seated pains in the Muscles, Bones, &c. and a regenerator of emaciated and broken Constitutions, caused by disease, intemperance, &c.
RECOMMENDATIONS.
Having been made acquainted with the medicinal qualities and witnessed the effects of "Dr Phelps's Arcanum," I feel much confidence in saying it is a preparation of medicine greatly superior to any thing of the kind, in curing those chronic diseases, for which it is intended, and recommend it to invalids in preference to any other article whatever.
SAMUEL L. MITCHELL, M. D.
New York, March 25, 1830.
My knowledge of the properties and operation of the "Arcanum of Dr Phelps," justifies me in saying that it is far superior to any preparative syrup with which I am acquainted. In the most obstinate and ambiguous diseases, it displays effects peculiarly surprising. In those affections that resist the skill of the physician, such as Rheumatism, Syphilis, Scrofula, Ulcerations, and Diseases of the Skin, &c., I would recommend it as worthy of great confidence.
JOHN D. GODMAN, M. D.
Philadelphia, Nov. 27, 1829.
For the last few years I have suffered excessively by a Bilious Mercurial Disease, which has rendered me frequently unfit for duty, and confined me as often to my bed. My disease was the sequel of bad treatment, while in the more tropical latitudes, and laboring under an acute inflammation of the liver, and other Bilious organs. Prior and subsequently to my arrival in this port, I have tried a great variety of prescriptions, medicines and remedies to a great variety of bottles of Phelps's Arcanum, among which, I have used a number of bottles of Phelps's Arcanum, and found very little benefit from them. After taking a bottle of Arcanum, I found such a change in my system, that I was induced to try another, and to my surprise, the pains in my legs all disappeared, and the Ulcers in one have completely healed up, and I can walk nearly as well as ever. I shall continue to take two or three bottles, and firmly believe it will make a complete cure of my disease. I remain, gentlemen, yours very respectfully,
JNO. MORRALL.
Messrs Lay & Hendrickson, Druggists, Savannah, (Geo.)
Extract of a letter from Dr Jones, a highly respectable physician, dated Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Dec. 28, 1833.
The Arcanum has been a powerful competitor, Swain's Panacea, in this place. As far as I have had an opportunity of ascertaining its virtues, I believe the Arcanum to be superior to any article of the kind, yet offered to the public. I have seen it in a case of Trichinosis Extrema—the individual thus afflicted was much emaciated and debilitated, after one week's attendance, I put him upon the Arcanum, following the directions—three bottles nearly effected a cure of the ulcer and bodily health.
I prescribed it in several Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, where it proved salutary. I am at this time trying the Arcanum on an individual, who has been laboring under Ulcerations of the skin, for fifteen years, and has had numerous affections of the skin, and has produced that effect, he is said to be in the belief, it will effect a permanent cure.
